

The Big Clip

wall mounted
(fixings included)

A lovely POP object, the Big Clip was designed by Arash Kaynama at the Royal College of Art under the direction of Ron Arad and featured in Spoon published by Phaidon.

The Big Clip is produced by Memphis as part of the "Home Alone" series in 1999.

They can be strung together in a chain, hung from a ceiling hook, the chain makes a coat-stand as long as you like. is made from solid 10mm chrome plated steel rod, measures 28cm, attaches to the wall making a fantastic coat hook or magazine rack.
